

Sophelia Flannigan

Sophelia is the proud, fun loving, housecoat wearing, mother of 12, living at Happy Valley Trailer Park. She is happily married to Elliot who for 25 years of their marriage has been the brunt of Sophelia's stories and jokes. She unabashedly says the thing everyone is thinking, but is afraid to say publically. Sophelia enjoys her own sense of humour almost more than anyone!

Kelita's Insight:

"Sophelia Flannigan has been with me a long time. As a young girl in rural Alberta, I rode my bicycle into town for swimming lessons in the summer. While waiting for the public swimming to start, I sat in the bleachers and listened to the town gossips who were watching their children learn to doggie paddle and jelly fish float. The experience offered me volumes of material, real stories and commentaries that are so hilarious that no one could have just made this stuff up.

The character was developed further when my best friend Margo created Sophelia's partner in crime; Clorice. Throughout grades 7-12, Margo and I created an entire world for these two crazy ladies through skits, written letters, public outings to the theatre and even judged a hairy legs contest! Ask me about that one someday."

Booking Sophelia:

Sophelia presents the funny, quirky and awkward moments of everyday life, kids and marital relationships in a way that will make audiences smirk, chuckle and laugh out loud. For a broad appeal to audiences young, old, married or not, Sophelia is your gal.

